

$100 Million Flood Control Project Explained

FLOOD CONTROL ENGINEERS inspect Little Morongo Canyon above Desert Hot Springs, site of a huge Metropolitan Water District aqueduct siphon and proposed location for one of several dams

Flood Control District survey aimed at a 20-year flood protection program proposed for the Army Corps of Engineers. The touring officials visited every critical, potential flood birthing ground ringing Palm Springs, including Long Canyon (right photo), site of a proposed dam; Tachevah Creek, termed the most critical spot, and others. (Desert Sun Photos).

30 Resort, Civic Leaders View Area's Critical Zones

Plans for a sweeping $100 million resort area flood control project were brought home to community and county leaders yesterday in a special tour of critical flood zones ringing Palm Springs.

More than 30 Village, Cathedral City and county officials and civic leaders were escorted to major desert flood birthing grounds by John Bryant, chief engineer for the Riverside County Flood Control District.

BRYANT SAID the project, programmed for work over a 20-year period by the Army Corps of Engineers, is chiefly designed to keep rampaging, 100-year floods from obliterating areas in downtown Palm Springs, Cathedral City and Desert Hot Springs.

Bryant's office is currently in its third year of survey for the blockade and channeling of water courses running in the sprawling Whitewater Flood Basin.

WHEN THE SURVEY is completed, it will be turned over to the Corps of Engineers for study and approval. It then goes to Congress for authorization and appropriation of funds.

Plans outlined by Bryant call for dams, levees and flood channels, mostly charted in a network designed to carry water away from populated areas into the Whitewater Channel and off through the Coachella Valley County Water District.

MOST CRITICAL area from the Palm Springs point of view is the Tachevah Creek project, costing $2½ million. This dam will go up less than two blocks west of a new housing project near downtown Palm Springs.

Tachevah Creek, Bryant pointed out, may one day dump a cataract measuring as much as 2,300 second-feet of water on Frances S. Stevens School and neighboring areas unless it is controlled.

This project calls for a channel carrying water from the dam to a point near Palm Canyon Drive. From there, a 60-inch conduit will carry the flood waters through Section 14.

OTHER DAMS ARE proposed for Big and Little Morongo Canyons, and Long Canyon, above Desert Hot Springs and several new housing subdivisions, and subdivisions, and West Wide Canyon, southwest of Desert Hot Springs.

Most of the work to be charted exists in Flood Control Zone Six, embracing Palm Springs and nearby environs. Part of the project extends into Zone Five in the Banning-Cabazon area.

VIEWED ON A FLOOD control District map, the network of channels and earthwork blockades stretch like a rib-cage running from northwest to southeast across the Palm Springs area.

The tour yesterday started at Palm Canyon, swung through Cathedral City, up into the hills above Varner Road (Old Highway 99), ranged in the back areas of Desert Hot Springs, crossed the Whitewater River, and ended at Tachevah Creek.

MOST OF THE WORK, Bryant explained, will be paid for by the Federal government—if Congress authorizes the plan. The County Flood Control District will contribute some funds, most of which will be refundable.

He pointed out that the district "could never afford to pay for such an enormous project."

INCLUDED IN THE Tanner Bus Tour were: County Supervisor Paul Anderson, Woodrow Rembold, flood control district assistant; Richard Reed, district engineer; Earl Gilman, commissioner of Flood Control Zone Four; Milton Stratford, real estate department of the Security First National Bank, Citizen's division.

Ted McKinney, Palm Springs City Council and City Planning Commission; W. A. Foster, City Planning Commission; George Gering, manager of the County Board of Trade; A. C. Two College Students Admit Thefts

Four Burglaries Here, Los Angeles, Cleared by Police

Two University of Colorado students who claimed they traded their classroom boredom for the adventure of crime were today charged with a wave of Palm Springs and Los Angeles burglaries that allegedly netted them $7,500 in cash, jewels and furs.

The cocky, young burglary suspects were identified as Larry Jay Lee, 22, and William Mack Reifshneider, 21, of Boulder, Colo.

They are accused of looting rooms at the Howard Manor, L'Horizon Hotel, Palm Springs Hotel and the Hollywood Knickerbocker, Police Chief August Kettmann said this morning.

KETTMANN CREDITED their arrest to the alert eyes of Patrolman J. R. Wahlberg.

Wahlberg stopped the pair the evening of Feb. 20 on a description obtained from La Paz Hotel parking attendant Thomas Kazman the night of the L'Horizon burglary.

Lee admitted entering the L'Horizon bed of Mrs. Eugene Smith as the unsuspecting victim wrote a letter in the living room. Reifshneider allegedly waited outside as Lee took $300 from Mrs. Smith's purse.

QUESTIONED FOR two days by Detective Lt. Robert White, both admitted taking $5,000 in furs and jewelry from the Howard Manor and $2,000 in furs and jewelry from Palm Springs Hotel on Feb. 6, and $350 in cash and travelers checks from the Knickerbocker the weekend of Feb. 8.

They told Detective White that they mailed their loot to an unidentified coed, allegedly Lee's girlfriend, at the University of Colorado. But they claimed the girl doesn't know the articles were stolen, White said.

BOTH ALSO CLAIMED they had nothing to do with the theft of almost $125,000 in jewels and furs from Palm Springs clubs and hotels the weekend of Feb. 8. They said they were then registered at the Knickerbocker.

IKE TO FLY TO PHOENIX

INDIAN HEARING IN INDIO yesterday drew top officials from the Bureau of Indian Affairs as well as attorneys, guardians, and members of the Agua Caliente Indian Tribal Council. Plans to Take Mamie There On Rest Trip

Hagerty Resents Questions on Reasons for Trip

THOMASVILLE, Ga., Feb. 21 — The White House announced today that President Eisenhower will fly his wife to Phoenix, Ariz., Sunday. Mrs. Eisenhower, who has been here with the President at the estate of former Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey for nine days, has attempted no noticeable activity.

PRESS SECRETARY James C. Hagerty said the President would "fly out with her to Phoenix" and spend about eight hours in Arizona before returning to Washington.

The President will fly his wife to Arizona for a "rest" at the Main Chance farm of the New York cosmetics manufacturer, Elizabeth Arden.

HAGERTY WAS openly indignant when reporters pressed him on the reasons for the trip by the President.

"Why did the President decide to go to Phoenix rather than perhaps taking another plane back to Washington?" Hagerty was asked.

"I think that when the President of the United States wants to go any place that he wants to with his wife, that is his business and nobody else's," Hagerty barked.

LAURENCE BURD, a White House reporter for the Chicago Tribune, replied, "I think I have a right to ask the question."

"Well, there's the answer," Hagerty replied. "And when he has to account for that or make any reporting on that, I think you are getting a little out of bounds."

Burd shot back, "I don't think I'm out of bounds at all." "I do," Hagerty asserted, "asking for an explanation of why the President wants to take his wife out to Phoenix."

WESTERN PILOTS STRIKE, BONANZA ONLY SERVICE NOW

Palm Springs, which last month acquired its second air lines service, Bonanza, today temporarily lost one as Western Air Lines pilots went out on strike at midnight.

The strike halted Western service to 47 cities in 13 states, Canada and Mexico. It was the first pilot strike in 32 years of Western operation.

The 260 WAL pilots walked off their jobs at midnight after failure of a move seeking appointment of a presidential mediation board to investigate the dispute.

Supervisors, Planners to Hold Discussion Meet

Members of the County Planning Commission will attend a joint meeting with the Board of Supervisors at 10 a.m., Tuesday, to view four important county matters.

The two organizations will consider creation of a zoning board, subdivision improvement standards, a county building code and a requirement for installation of curbs and gutters for commercial and industrial development.

In regular commission business following the meeting, county planners will view four desert area matters. These are:

Public hearing on application to establish an automobile wrecking yard in the Garnet area, one mile east of Twentynine Palms Highway and 1.3 miles west of Indian Avenue.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Three men were killed and two injured when an F11F Grumman Tiger jet crashed and exploded aboard the Aircraft Carrier Shangri-La, the Navy reported today.

The accident occurred Thursday off the California Coast, but was not reported by the Navy until early today.

Ontario Policeman Killer Suspect Captured Today

ONTARIO, Feb. 21 — Jess Davis, 40, alleged killer of an Ontario policeman and object of a huge manhunt in the Soquel Canyon area, was captured early this morning.

Costa Mesa police Lt. Roger Neff and officer Wayne Caldwell found the fugitive sleeping in the bedroom of Sleepy Hall Tavern shortly after midnight. The community is about four miles from where the killing occurred.

DAVIS WAS TAKEN to the San Bernardino sheriff's office and booked on suspicion of murder. Police said a .38-caliber revolver believed to be the weapon that killed Det. Russell E. Grower, 34, was found near Davis.

More than 200 sheriff's deputies and police officers from surrounding areas searched the thick brush area around Soquel Canyon.

KETTMANN'S HAVE GIRL, BORN EARLY THIS MORNING

A girl was born to Chief of Police August G. Kettmann and his wife, Georgia, at 2:35 this morning at Desert Hospital.

The baby, weighing 6 pounds, 13 ounces, is the second daughter of the Kettmanns; the other is Ronda Ann, 4 years old.

Kettmann had only one comment, "I am sure happy the baby was born on my birthday."

The baby's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lish, Sr., of 629 El Placer, Palm Springs.

Board to Have Five Desert Items Monday

Only five desert area matters are listed on the agenda for the regular Monday meeting of the Riverside County Board of Supervisors.

Desert area items up for supervisory consideration are: Requests of Cathedral City Area Business Association and Desert Hot Springs for more police protection; request of Ernie Dunlevie for improvement of a portion of 42nd Avenue.

Deluxe Park

February is a favorite month for parties and birthdays. And, as Dr. George Barr and Gladys James were to celebrate their birthdays on the same day, 26 of their friends planned a surprise birthday celebration for the two of them at the Rainbow room in Cathedral City. Delighted and surprised, the two guests and all who attended reported an excellent time.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kirkpatrick along with the Stewarts, the Stoddards and the Millers attended Tramview's Community Sing Sunday evening. The Kirkpatricks had been requested to play their chimes and gave several musical selections with these and other musical instruments, and Mrs. Kirkpatrick sang some songs.

THE VALENTINE party of Saturday was filled with fun and enjoyment for all the 175 who attended. Special credit for the decorations and refreshments go to four workers here in the park: Ethel Baker, Claire Wheeler, Evelyn Cox and Zora Cain.

These ladies, with their committees, decorated and baked over 300 cup cakes and besides serving, added to the occasion with their attractive and unique costumes of red heart aprons, Valentine Chapeaux and multi-colored paper flowered corsages.

The white lace tablecloth, red candles and large red heart decorations showed a great deal of thought and work. The De Luxe orchestra furnished music for dancing.

TUESDAY'S PERFECT weather

found 14 Rock Hounds from De Luxe searching the hills for lovely specimens. Those who went included Mr. and Mrs. Myron Pohl, Mr. and Mrs. Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. George Stoddard, three from the Merwin family, Curtis Miller and Mae Bullock.

Forty to fifty persons in the park took a trip to Hemet Tuesday to visit Ed and Inez Olerud and other former residents of De Luxe who are now living at the Florida Trailer Park there. Mrs. Olerud had reserved the Recreation Hall for the occasion and had the hall and tables decorated in the George Washington Motif.

CARD PARTIES are being enjoyed here lately. Friday night's winners for the Duplicate Bridge Club were North and South, Mrs. McCarthy and Mrs. Maude Campbell, and East and West Mrs. Nona Ralph and Mrs. Ethel Nelson. Tuesday night Progressive Bridge Party for Pairs was held under the direction of Marie Newman. Those who had the high score for the evening were Dr. Melius and Mrs. Hildreth Griffith. Hostesses for the Ladies Wednesday afternoon card party were Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Fautz. Six tables of bridge and one of Canasta were enjoyed.

ALSO TUESDAY, evening, a dinner was given in honor of George and Margaret Dane, former residents of De Luxe, who stopped by on their way to Mesa, Ariz. Twenty attended the dinner including Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Laursen, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Harnden, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lent, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heacock, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Diebenow, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Evans and the Danes. The Ladies Inner-Park Shuffleboard tournament really got under way this week. Mrs. Rossiter was elected captain of the team and twenty have signed up for the fun.

THE WEATHER we had last week found many friends in the park who leave their trailer here and then visit when they can. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Roland, both feeling much better; Mr. and Mrs. Sievers and children; the Reubensamen's and their boys; Claude and Marie Milsap and Mr. and Mrs. Art Hill.

Harry Nelson's sister visited here the past week end; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kerr of Anaheim stayed with the Nelsons and enjoyed the Indio Date Festival. Mr. Nelson's brother, Walter Nelson and his wife from St. George, Utah, will be here this weekend and will also spend a short visit with the Nelsons.

Horizon Village

Paul Harrison, manager of Horizon, and Horizon itself had Lee Provis back even though she really is "on vacation." Seems Lee spent part of her vacation in Chico visiting her family but the lure of the desert and wonderful weather here were too much for her, so she returned and is spending the rest of her vacation basking in the sunshine.

Festivities, parties and celebrations filled the past week at Horizon. Bea and Leo Miller celebrated their anniversary last week and Bill Bond his birthday.

"DAN CUPID" was busy with his Valentine parties. On Friday a sweetheart dance was held for the square dancers, and Buzz Brown was caller. Approximately twelve squares were on the floor most of the evening.

On Saturday night, the dance hall as well as the tables in the recreation hall were decorated for the Saturday night dance. Betty Streck and her committee utilized a red and white theme. About 150 attended the dance, with the Swing-A-Roos playing the music.

MR. AND MRS. RALPH HEPKER of Marian, Iowa just arrived to spend the rest of the season, and glad to escape the below zero weather and snow back in Iowa. George and Gilda White are moving to the ramada and cabana they purchased recently. George has hung up his fishing rod until later in the spring and they will be located just east of the grocery store now.

HAROLD AND BERTHA NUTZMAN have completed the erection of their aluminum awning. Margaret and George Hughes are awaiting delivery of their new 47 foot, ten-wide mobile home due now any day.

The Palmer Hardings of Los Angeles have arrived with a new 19 foot Traveler. Miriam and Frank Lindstrom have just returned from a visit to their home in San Mateo where they enjoyed seeing their son who just returned from the service, as well as visiting with the rest of their children.

The Ladies Shuffleboard Team of Horizon played the Rancho Team on Monday. A luncheon was served by Dorothy Samm and her committee. Horizon won the game.

The largest collection of blatta statuary in the world is at Gettysburg, Pa., where more than 2,500 monuments decorate the Civil War battlefield.

ALL-OUT EFFORT BY LOCAL citizenry to bring about a Palm Springs float entry in the 1959 Tournament of Roses Parade was symbolized yesterday at El Mirador Hotel. Both current mayor, Jerry Sanborn, left and his predecessor, Florian G. Boyd, met to purchase tickets from Kitten Farar for the Rose Tournament Float Association Ball at El Mirador Feb. 28. Theme for the ball, "All Nations Under the Sun," was authorized by General Chairman Ray Ryan. The Association's float building fund is expected to be substantially increased by proceeds from the ball. (Conrad Hug Photo)

Work Week

CHICAGO — (UP) — John T. Rettaliata, president of Chicago's Illinois Institute of Technology, says mechanization shortened the average work week from 70 hours to 40 hours in 100 years. Man and animal-provided energy used in production dropped from 74 per cent in 1850 to six per cent in 1950.

'Atoms for Peace' Exhibit to Have 2 Area Showings

The Atomic Energy Commission's new "Atoms for Peace" exhibit will be displayed in Palm Springs on Feb. 27 and in Palm Desert Feb. 28.

Dealing with the peace-time use of atomic materials, particularly in the field of agriculture, the exhibit may be viewed by the public from 1 to 5 p.m., at the corner of Palm Canyon Drive and Tahquitz Road, in front of the Welwood Murray Memorial Library.

The "Atoms for Peace" program features several types of exhibits sent on national tour by the AEC to acquaint the public with peaceful applications of nuclear energy. The Village exhibit features the use of radioactive isotopes in various fields of study and production in agriculture.

Sponsors of the desert area appearances are the Palm Springs and Palm Desert Junior Chambers of Commerce.

GOP to Name New Officers

Palm Springs Republican Assembly will hold its annual meeting and election of officers at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, Feb. 26, at the Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association office.

Besides the election, according to President Al E. Hoover, the group will name delegates to the San Jose convention.

The Millers received wrist watches from Franklin Life's Key Club, originated for agents associated with above-average sales. Presentation was made at the Miller's Palm Springs home. Wildflower Show Committee To Be Named DESERT HOT SPRINGS—New committees and committee members will be appointed for the second annual DHS Wildflower Show at a public meeting scheduled for 7 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 27.

Anyone interested in assisting in planning for the show, scheduled for March 29 and 30, is invited to attend. The meeting will be held in Town Hall, at Eighth and Cactus Streets.

Mrs. Eleanor Hunter, general show chairman, said that two committee chairmen have been appointed. They are Mrs. Dana Bennett, decorations, and Mrs. Alice Hartnett, entertainment.

Show officials said that booth sponsors are needed and asked area businessmen to enter floats in the show parade or establish booths at the show grounds.

The Wildflower Show is sponsored by the Desert Improvement Association.

Civil Employees To Meet Feb. 27

Chapter 587, National Association of Retired Civil Employees, will hold its regular meeting at 2 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 27, at the Clubhouse at the Polo Grounds. All members are asked to attend.

Margie Thatcher Phone FAirview 5-5005

Ever notice how the fun planning for residents and guests in Palm Springs includes children as well as adults? This is an important feeling for the community to encourage because families that play together are the happiest and also the most productive.

Speaking of families, some people may believe that little boys are made of "hammers and nails and puppy dog tails," but I think that this is more often the material found in a boy's pockets (along with other things) and that little boys essentially are pretty nice.

MAYBELLE HOLDITCH shares this opinion, which explains why she enjoys the SUB-TEEN department at ROBINSON'S so much. In charge of this section, she firmly believes that clothes for boys should be just as attractive as for girls... this is true, and wait until I tell you about some of them to look for in this WELL supplied department.

No young boy's wardrobe is complete these days without SKIMMERS, BEACHERS, OR SURFERS! Just ask him... He'll youngsters accept nothing less, and from Robinson's they are the most!

THEY COME IN ALL white, royal blue or fire engine red... Impeccably tailored. Not only that, but they have matching shirts to complete the natty casual look.

There are other shirts too... from dressy to fine lightweight terry... and don't for a minute think that your young man won't be impressed by a shirt with a DON LOPER label (a young man won't appreciate this observation, but they are Darling)... all these in sizes 8 to 18.

THERE ARE TROPICAL SWIM SUITS with a matching shirt, for a complete costume, and also CABANA JACKETS... those cute tailored, collared, front buttoned wonders in plain colors, gay prints or practical terry. You'll find the popular "OUTSIDE" shirts with a clever side button detail... since a boy's shirt tail doesn't stay in anyway, I think mother's can be grateful that this style is so well accepted. One other shirt idea features referee stripes on soft, easy to care for cotton... stripes are red, white, or black on white... also black on red.

ACTUALLY THIS is the most complete BOY'S DEPARTMENT anywhere... everything from Ivy League—dress clothes—to play clothes, including such practical standards as Levi's and underwear... even socks.

In the words of a shopper seen in the store today, "I like to shop at ROBINSON'S because it is such a beautiful store, and because they have exactly the kind of clothes my son and daughter like." This was MRS. BIRNK-RANT from San Bernardino, who with her husband "HAL" are frequent visitors... he has the Arrowhead Towel and Linen Service, Inc.

NOT TO FORGET the girls entirely you should know that Robinson's is headquarters for those wonderful ROARING 20'S swim wear and play clothes... you know what I mean.

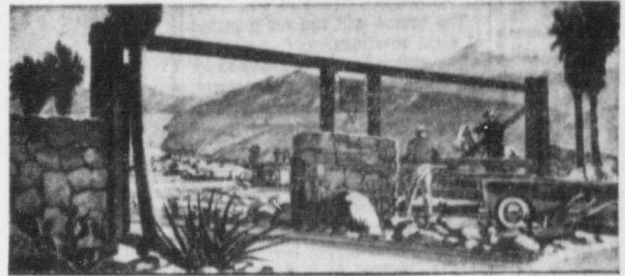

A new and exciting note for the ladies... the ultimate in luxury, hand knit ORGANZA RIBBON KNIT DRESSES, in five different styles, that can be ordered in 14 different colors! (Also available in silk crepe thread).

Feminine and flattering beyond description, they also have practical qualities... they KEEP their shape, wear for years, and even if they have been folded in a suitcase for ages, they are always ready for the most stunning "personal appearance." (333 South Palm Canyon Drive)

Didn't intend to misinform you—It's probably the effect of the unusual enthusiasm about the Faye-Renee Fashion Show—Anyway, it is Saturday evening, that's to-night!

Tea, coffee and cocoa were unhealthy because Frederick William III said they caused an "ungodly stink" to issue from the mouths of those who drank them.

The class, designed to train students to read at a faster rate and with increased comprehension, will meet on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30, commencing on Monday, Feb. 24.

MEETING PLACE will be room eight in the Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School, located just north of Palm Springs High School, at 400 South Cerritos Road.

The course will run for a period of eight meetings.

The nation is seeing renewed interest in reading improvement, and this class is opened in response to popular demand.

WARREN LINVILLE, junior high school principal, who will teach the class, has previously conducted such courses for adults, has taught remedial reading, and in the summer of 1956 served as director of the reading clinic at Northern State Teachers College in Aberdeen, S. D.

Colo. Only Gorilla Ever Born in Captivity, Is Now a Year Old; Has Five Nurses, and a Fixed Notion About Personal Status -- Thinks She's Human

By DOC QUIGG

United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK — The only gorilla ever born in captivity, Colo, the pride of the Columbus, Ohio, Zoo, is now more than a year old and living in diaper-clad glory with a fixed notion about her personal status—she thinks she's human.

"Other gorillas are just plain gorillas to her; she regards her parents as a couple of odd characters," said Earl Davis, zoo superintendent. "We've got five nurses for her, and they've spoiled her rotten. She cries when they leave the room."

COLO, YOU MAY remember, burst with bombshell force upon world zoo circles 13 months and two weeks ago with a triple triumph. It was the first gorilla breeding, first conception, and first birth in captivity. From the moment of birth, she's been under 24-hour human care, coddled, pampered, vitamin stuffed.

"She tries out her new teeth on everything, and she's got a powerful bite," said Davis in a phone interview at his Columbus Zoo office.

"SHE DOESN'T LIKE men anymore. Those woman nurses have spoiled her, and she'd bite me if I tried to take her from one of them. The only way a man can handle her is get in the cage and play with her awhile. But she's not at all vicious.

She weighs 22 pounds and is about 18 inches high in the squatting position, but she can reach up about a yard standing up. The only damage she does is unintentional with her powerful finger grasp. Sometimes our nurse girls will have badly bruised arms. We feel that we'll be able to handle her safely for many years.

"I SAID WHEN SHE was born that she was a $50,000 baby. She's proved it. We more than doubled our attendance fee intake this last eight-month season. About 650,000 to 700,000 persons saw her then. We have a big, plate-glass-front nursery, and the public watches her feeding, bathing in the sink, diaper changing and playing.

"She got a basketful of toys, plastic and rubber, for Christmas, and we give her a few at a time. She's graduated from the bottle to baby foods, junior size, along with some solids and fresh fruits. She eats on demand — whimpers when hungry — morning, noon, and night.

ALTHOUGH COLO has no special feeling for her father, Baron, 12, and her mother, Christina, 9, they seem to know her for their young.

Weasels are of considerable economic importance in the farmlands where they occur. Authorities estimate they kill millions of mice and rats each year.

"The mother" Davis said, "admires her and will offer her food through the bars." They are never allowed together in the same cage.

Overeating Is Cause of Exhibit

CHICAGO — Russell S. Miller today explained why he has set up an exhibition for the Chicago Heart Assn. for the past 14 years.

Fourteen years ago "I would have sworn I had a heart attack," Miller said "but the doctors said I'd just eaten too much too fast."

REASONS WHY...

... Goes Farther in Newspapers Than in Any Other Medium

- 1 Newspaper advertising reaches more people. 82% of all people 12 or more years of age read the newspaper daily.
- 2 People like advertising in newspapers, resent it in other media, especially Radio and TV.
- 3 Newspapers deliver more "ready to buy" prospects. Readers are attracted to ads that interest them. Broadcast listeners are attracted by the program, not the product.
- 4 Newspaper advertising gets more action, because people believe what they read.
- 5 Newspaper advertising offers more local selling flexibility, timed and measured to meet selling opportunities, or competition.
- 6 Newspapers give more flexibility in selling copy—both physical (size of impact) and creative (to hold reader interest).
- 7 Newspaper advertising offers better retail merchandising help, as borne out by the fact that retailers spend more in newspapers than in all other media combined.
- 8 Newspaper advertising is a safer and surer investment because it is free of the medium's own competition, is always ready to serve you.
- 9 Newspaper advertising produces more sales per dollar—costs less to make a sale.

Today's Sport Parade

By OSCAR FEALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Fearless Fealey's facts and figures:

The Carmen Basilio-Ray Robinson middleweight title fight at Chicago has all sorts of entertainment angles, aside even from the March 25 soft shoe routine inside the ropes.

Carmen after the bout will appear at a Las Vegas night spot in a single-o. He'll do what is described as a "fistic soliloquy," which translators say is a 10-minute fast patter act.

Robinson meanwhile every night is studying the uncut film of their last bout, in which Carmen won the title. Sugar Ray, who gave up a night spot act to return to the ring, isn't letting Carmen in on the new script.

Fighter Writing
Annapolis of nothing, Mushky Jackson, one of the fight game's leading figures, is doing his autobiography. It has been suggested he title it: "Tanks" for the memories.

If you've ever wondered what E. J. Dutch Harrison's name is, here's the answer.

"My folks named me after a plantation owner my father was overseer for, a fellow named Ernie Joe Fields," says the old Arkansas traveler of the fairways. "I guess they were hoping he'd leave me something."

"He didn't."

One of the ballplayers who arrived early at Tampa, Fla., for spring training wanted to know how come the ancient nags at Sunshine Park ran so well.

"That's easy," he was told. "It's because it feels so good not to be pulling those laundry wagons."

Indicative of the golfing attitude which made Ben Hogan such a tremendous success is a story related by Jimmy Demaret.

Hogan and Byron Nelson were playing Demaret and sifter Don Cherry a "friendly" five-buck Nassau in a practice round before the Masters. Going to the 10th tee, Demaret and Cherry were getting murdered.

"Listen, Ben, old pal," Demaret kidded Hogan, "why don't you take it easy on us? After all, this isn't Cherry's game, you know."

Hogan, unsmiling, looked Demaret squarely in the face and replied:

"Let him find another game."

Marathon Matches Mark Palm Desert Tennis Play

Favorites Meet Hot Contests

Hot competition marked the start of the Seventh Annual Palm Desert Invitational Tennis Tournament Friday on the courts of Shadow Mountain Club with the favorites having to extend themselves in the early rounds to remain in contention.

Many long sets were recorded during the day's play as singles winners advanced into the quarter finals slated for today and women's matches started this morning.

LONGEST STRUGGLE of the day came when John Cranston, UCLA, had to go into a 42-game set to defeat Bobby Delgado, USC, 22-20, 1-6, 6-4.

In another marathon set, top-seeded Whitney Reed of Alameda, won from Johnny Fleitz of Belmont Shore 6-1, 14-12.

Alex Olmeda, of USC, top southland netter and former NCAA champion, had trouble, too, in defeating Eddie Sledge, UCLA, 6-1, 7-5.

ONLY UPSET of the day came in one of the day's final matches when Sledge and Allen Fox, also of UCLA, defeated second-seeded Reed and Hugh Stewart of Pasadena in doubles play, 6-2, 6-8, 6-4.

In quarter finals today Reed opposed Stewart, Cranston met Mike Franks, Olmeda faced Norman Perry and Noel Brown played Davis Cupper Mike Green.

The tournament is sponsored jointly by Shadow Mountain Club and the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce.

Hank Aaron Back in Fold With Braves

Milwaukee Still Has 13 Players Unsigned With One Week Left

By JOE SARGIS
United Press Sports Writer

Quiet Hank Aaron, one of the biggest fish in the Milwaukee pond, was landed by the Braves today when the National League's Most Valuable Player agreed to terms.

The slender outfielder, who lets his bat do all the talking for him, settled 1958 contract terms with Milwaukee General Manager John Quinn Friday night in a brief telephone call from Jacksonville, Fla. Quinn also nailed catcher Del Crandall in a telephone call to Fullerton, Calif.

Aaron, who led the NL in homers with 44 in 1957, is believed to have consented to terms calling for a 1958 salary of $40,000. Aaron also batted in 132 runs last season and had a .322 batting average. His home run in a game against the St. Louis Cardinals clinched the flag for the Braves and Aaron went on to spark his club to the world championship in the World Series with the New York Yankees.

13 TO SIGN
The Braves still have 13 players to sign with the official opening of spring training only a week away. Among the unsigned are World Series hero Lew Burdette, who beat the Yankees three times, star second baseman Red Schoendienst and home run slugger Eddie Mathews. All three are holding out for big raises after banner seasons. Schoendienst and Mathews are believed to have earned $35,000 each last season, while Burdette's salary is estimated at $20,000.

Meanwhile, star left handers Whitey Ford and Johnny Antonelli, both of whom slipped a couple of notches last year, also agreed to terms.

Ford, who leads all active major league pitchers in winning percentage and earned run average, consented to the same salary he got last season after a huddle with New York Yankee player director Lee MacPhail at St. Petersburg, Fla.

MacPhail got together with pitcher Bob Grim and star outfielder Mickey Mantle in an effort to line them up before March 1, but nothing came of the meetings. The Yankees still have nine players outside the fold.

Finals Feb. 26
In Tamarisk Club Women's Event
Semi-finals rounds in the Tamarisk Country Club Women's championship tournament will be played next Tuesday and finals on Wednesday, it was announced today.

In qualifying rounds this week Marge Kanrich took low gross honors with an 80 and May Anthony won low net honors with a card of 74.

Paula Blythe won the putting contest with a score of 28.

Taylor to Defend Invitational Title

Dr. Frank M. (Bud) Taylor, Red Hill Country Club and Pomona dentist, four-time winner of the Palm Springs Invitational men's golf tournament, will be here to defend his most recent title, won last year, George Howard, O'Donnell Golf Club pro, said Friday.

Dr. Taylor had announced last year that he was going to quit tournament competition and devote all of his time to his practice. But he changed his mind and Howard has his entry today.

DR. TAYLOR, then a student at UCLA, won the first O'Donnell Club Invitational back in 1936. As a full-fledged dentist, he came back in 1952 to win it the second time. In 1955 he again took top honors and won his fourth cup last year.

Dr. Taylor is a United States Walker Cupper and United States Amateur finalist.

His home course is at Red Hill, Upland.

HARVIE WARD, of San Francisco, former National Amateur champion, will also be here for the tournament the week of March 16.

Ward won the Palm Springs Invitational in 1954 and 1956.

Ward and Dr. Taylor have duelled for the title the last four years, each winning two.

THIS YEAR'S tournament will be the 23rd renewal of the event which holds top ranking in California amateur tours.

J. E. (Dad) French is chairman of the tournament. Dates have been announced as follows:

March 16-18 Class A (6-14) and B (15 and over) 36-hole handicap championship, play two of the three days.

March 19-20—Seniors 18-hole tournament.

March 21-23—Men's Invitational 54-hole championship.

DR. TAYLOR and Ward, expected to battle it out again, will find strong competition from the field of around 100 golfers expected in the event.

Chuck Kocsis and Tom Draper of Detroit, Charles Teel of Las Vegas, Harry Givan of Seattle (winner in 1948), Robert Ross of San Francisco, Bruce McCormick (1938 winner) and Bob McCallis.

ter of San Gabriel are expected to furnish this opposition.

IN THE HANDICAP division, Ray Kelly of Palm Springs is the defending champion in Class A; J. A. Walstrom of Pasadena in Class B and Ed Ross of San Fernando in the Senior tournament.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

This was the day that western clad guests . . . arrived from every direction for the chuckwagon brunch that is an annual affair at the Rio Del Sol Ranch home of the Dean Vincents . . . that went on well into the afternoon . . . Mid-afternoon found Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Strauss hosting a reception for Dr. Waltman Walters . . . head surgeon for the Mayo Clinic . . . and this evening finds two events on the calendar . . . Buddy and Sy Simon are hosting the first of a series of three cocktail buffets . . . and up at the Tennis Club . . . it's the big Soiree Parisienne . . . with an all-French menu and entertainment . . . and prizes for the frenchiest costumes . . .

This is an alert because they're late getting their invitations out . . . but Joann and Ned Crawford are flying in from Portland on Monday . . . and are taking over El Mirador's Starlight Patio for a big cocktail-buffet on the evening of March 2 . . . The Crawfords will be flying down seafood from Oregon for the buffet . . . and this is certain to be a fabulous party as these two ex-Villagers . . . who've been away much too long . . . celebrate a reunion with all the old friends . . . Stand by for those invitations . . .

Found a good noon time crowd . . . at the attractive luncheon buffet at Tennis Club Thursday . . . and sat there mesmerized by the view of the shifting cloud shadows on the far-off sand dunes . . .

At a nearby table was a six-some . . . down from the Big Town to make arrangements for the California Retail Grocers Association convention that will bring around 2,000 people to Palm Springs next October . . . with headquarters at El Mirador . . .

In the group were the Andrew Dossett of Beverly Hills . . . He's vice president of the marketing division of Coca Cola . . . the Ivan Nielsons of La Canada (he's with Nehi) . . . and Mr. and Mrs. Ed de Staute (recently retired president of Spartan Grocers) . . .

The Dossetts were former members and remembered the Club from its early days . . .

Mary Costa, the lovely singer who's been appearing on the Jack Benny show . . . and is currently singing the lead in "The Bartered Bride" at the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles . . . and who will be the featured singer on Musical Interludes at the United Fund benefit at Plaza Theatre on March 2 . . . has signed to sing the Jenny Lind role in the forthcoming film on the life of P. T. Barnum . . . I hear . . .

Peggy and Randy Christie . . . who are being much entertained during the weeks before they leave on their world cruise . . . were guests of honor Thursday night . . . when the Franklyn MacCarthys hosted a cocktail-buffet at their home on San Lorenzo Road . . .

Among the guests were Harold and Marguerite Cooper . . . who are living in their trailer at Blue Skies . . . while their new home on the 12th Fairway at Thunderbird is being completed . . .

Others included the Fred Hallidays, Ward Risvolds, Joe Hales . . . Peg and Norm Walters (he's been months recovering from the genuine Asian flu) . . . Kay and Dolph Obergfels and the John McClures . . .

The Robert Stacks (she's Rosemary Bowe) are here at Ocotillo Lodge . . . where he's studying the script for "John Paul Jones" . . . the four million dollar production that will be filmed in Europe . . . They will be here a couple of weeks . . . before he leaves for location in Spain, France, England and Ireland . . . Rosemary will join him abroad the latter part of May . . . after their baby is born . . .

NBC will do a half hour television show from Palm Springs tomorrow . . . A special telecast called "Look Here" . . . will present Martin Agronsky questioning Raymond Loewy . . . at the Loewy home on Panorama Road . . .

Loewy, of course, is nationally known for his work in industrial engineering . . . It seems probable that the interview will concern Loewy's suggestion for a non-military satellite . . . a Star of Good Will . . . a spiritual symbol of hope and good will circling the earth for men of all nations to see . . .

Here tomorrow for a short visit with his aunt Anita Haskell Jones . . . will be Dr. John Froelich, project director for the satellite program at Cal-Tech laboratories . . .

Chairmen and Committees At Work on WAIF Ball

With the Palm Springs chapter of WAIF staging its second annual formal ball on March 8th at the Tennis Club, Mrs. Walter Braunschweiger, ball chairman, is spending most of her time for the next few weeks in her "Rock Point" home completing final arrangements for the gala party.

Splendorous decorations and outstanding Hollywood entertainment highlighted last year's ball and this year the committee promises even more glamorous plans and excitement for those attending. WAIF Adoption International Fund, a division of International Social Service Inc., which has found homes for more than 5000 babies in some 72 countries in the past few years.

Half of all the funds raised at the coming Palm Springs Chapter of WAIF ball will remain in the Village to be allocated to Pathfinder's group, which will use the money to benefit local children. Mrs. S. P. Manasse is financial chairman of WAIF, and president of Pathfinders.

Mrs. Edwin Fallgren has the double assignment of being co-chairman of the Ball and also serving as chairman of the decorations committee. Huge orchid trees centered all the tables last year and this year she has another floral decorative idea which will be just as dramatic, but can not be revealed until the night of the ball. Assisting Mrs. Fallgren are Mrs. Earl Cordrey, Mrs. George Wheeler, Mrs. John Dawson and Mrs. Adolph Bremer.

Mrs. William Malouf, president of Palm Springs Chapter of WAIF, will this year inaugurate a program-book to include pictures of families and committee members, which will be distributed just to those attending the gala ball. Mrs. Lloyd Frank is in charge of advertising, with Mrs. J. Ross Clark II handling advertising in the Thunderbird area. Others working on the committee are Mrs. Harold Murphy, Mrs. Bertine Treat by Mrs. Edwin Silverman, chairman of favors committee, and William Malouf. Prizes are to be fabulous according to Mrs. Dolph Obergfel, chairman, and Mrs. Elsinore Machris, co-chairman.

Mrs. Irving Snyder is chairman of membership drive for the local chapter with Mrs. George Robertson, assisting.

Script will be sold the night of the Ball in the Tennis Club. Mrs. Lloyd Frank, chairman of this committee, will be assisted by Mrs. B. J. Sanchez, Edwin H. Morris, Edwin Silverman, J. Ross Clark II, George Robertson, Frank Bering, Edward Rothbart, Lester Selig, Robert Hall, and Miss Joyce Foreman.

Due to the inclement weather approximately fifty-five women were present, instead of the usual large attendance, when Palm Springs Chapter, City of Hope held its regular meeting at the Jewish Community Center on Wednesday. Fae Brezin, president, opened the very interesting and enthusiastic meeting.

An inspiring film "Not by Bread Alone" was shown and enjoyed by all. This film was narrated by Van Heflin and contained a commentary by Mercedes McCambridge. The film will long be remembered by all who had the pleasure of seeing it. Rose Walters, director community organizations, was guest speaker.

The refreshment period, which followed the meeting and viewing of the film, provided an opportunity for members and guests to chat and visit. Kate Neishuler, in honor of her new little grandson, provided the sweet table. Ceciel Korngute arranged and presented the floral center piece. The following members were hostesses for the afternoon: Rae Gholstin, Dorothy Slatin, Fae Brown, Mae Heller and Lillian Freeman.

One of the many important items on the agenda for the season will be the forthcoming luncheon and card party, which will be given at the Tennis Club, Tuesday, March 4, 12:30 p.m.

Mother Contest Open Now

Mrs. M. Edna McMillan of Palm Springs, chairman of the committee which will choose the 1958 California Mother of the Year, said today that the Mothers Association meeting will be held here this year, and the Selections Committee will meet here to select the Mother, and they hope to have some nominees from the Village.

Eligible are all mothers who are outstanding in the community and in personal life and have reared children of outstanding character. They may be nominated by any group or individual, meeting the following requirements: active member of a religious body; show such traits as courage, cheerfulness, patience, affection, kindness, understanding and homemaking ability; exemplify in her life and conduct the precepts of the Golden Rule; have a sense of responsibility in civic affairs and be active for public benefit; all her children must be over 15 years of age.

Entry blanks may be secured from Mrs. McMillan at 31-018 San Joaquin Drive, Palm Springs. Selection will be made early in March so there is no time to be lost in making nominations. The California Mother will compete with those from other states and territories for the honor of being chosen American Mother of the Year.

This year, for the first time, the American Mother will be given a trip to Europe in May via Sabena Belgian World Airlines to bring a message from the mothers of America to be delivered at the World's Fair in Brussels, Belgium.

JULIA MEADE, who's seen on television by more people weekly than any other person through her appearance on two top-rated programs, "The Ed Sullivan Show" and "Playhouse 90," will appear in next week's Ferral-Walters production "Dream Girl," opening Tuesday night at the Palm Springs Playhouse. Appearing with her (two central figures) will be John Bryant, who is making his second appearance at the Playhouse, having been here a couple of years ago. Pictured with them are the hostesses of this week's First Nighter dinner at the Biltmore, Mrs. James Schlect, on left, and Mrs. James Olsen, on right. (Village Studio Photo)

Julia Meade To Open at Playhouse

Lovely Julia Meade, star of the Ed Sullivan show, will make her first West Coast stage appearance at Palm Springs Playhouse in "Dream Girl," by Elmer Rice, February 25 through March 2. Her appearance at the desert theatre will be something of a stage reunion with her longtime friend, Marrian Walters who, with husband Michael Ferrall, are producers-directors of the 1958 theatre season.

As Georgina Allerton, Julia plays the role of a small book shop owner (her partner played by Marrian Walters) who takes flights into a dream world to allay the boredom of the struggling shop. Not a small portion of the play's charm is traceable to the trick staging which transports the blonde Georgina from the world of reality to one of imagination.

Supporting Miss Meade is Johnny Bryant, of television, who played a season at Palm Springs Playhouse three years ago. Loyal Lucas, Jessie Glendenning and John Bonitz also are in the cast.

The Playhouse is sponsored by the Palm Springs Playhouse Guild. The First Nighter dinner will be held at the Tennis Club.

OESa Club to Hold Luncheon

OESa Club of Palm Springs will meet for luncheon at the Town and Country restaurant on Thursday, February 27, at 12:30 p.m. After luncheon, there will be a brief business meeting, followed by an afternoon at cards. Reservations should be made by calling Fern Van Elzenga, FA 5-5524, or Edna Brott, FA 4-2367, Bea Martensen, FA 4-9444.

Mr. and Mrs. Spl Bernstein, who left for Mexico Valentine's Day, report they are having a wonderful time visiting all the places of interest including the University of Mexico where 39,000 students are enrolled. They expect to be back in the Village within the next week.

Beckleys

Mr. and Mrs. William Moody are rather unusual trailerites. Instead of having one trailer they have two and each is parked in different locations. One, a 45-footer, is located in Altadena, and the other, a 30-footer, they keep here at Beckleys' for their fun and enjoyment on weekends and holidays on the desert.

Of course, many trailerites have two trailers, one for traveling and one for their permanent mobile living but having two permanent locations is rather a different and intriguing idea. Last weekend the Moodys were here in the park enjoying their second location.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL Biggle have just moved here to Beckley's. Mike and Flo Charney have recently purchased Horace Miller's trailer home, and Mr. Miller is being transferred to Monrovia.

Visitors this week include Abe Ellington's daughter from Des Moines, Wash., who will be here for awhile.

Mrs. Clyde Burdick recently visited Altadena. While there she entertained old friends from Alaska.

Orchard Park

Recent residents of the Orchard Trailer Villa are Mr. and Mrs. U. J. Kirk, who have just retired from their family business in St. Paul, Ore. The nationally known Twin Oak Poultry Farm will now be run by Mr. Kirk's two oldest boys, with his other eight children assisting.

The Kirk line of the white leghorn chicks has become very well known and the family enterprise has become successful through the years. The Kirks have 10 children and 22 grandchildren, all of whom take an active interest and a pride in the business of superior chickens.

NEW RESIDENTS in the past week include Mr. and Mrs. Shultz from La Puente and Mr. and Mrs. Southernland of Long Beach, who are returning after an extensive trip together. The Shultz's and the Southernland's trip began last fall when they first went to Seattle and Puget Sound for some salmon fishing, then on to the Keys, Fla., and now here to Palm Springs on their last lap.

Herbert and Martha Soderstrom are also here, where they met Mrs. Soderstrom's brother, Clarence Rosenberg from Mexico City. Mr. and Mrs. Hansen of Willmar, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Nelson from Hackensack, Minn., who are cousins, are also here in Orchard together.

RONNIE AND ED Hajney made a trip over a recent weekend to Bullhead City, Nev., to inspect the new trailer park purchased by Chad and Pat Trowler, former residents of Orchard. The five acre park on the Colorado River has 30 trailer spaces and four motel units. Ed made the 195 miles and four and a half hours, going by way of Twenty-nine Palms. After arriving home he displayed ten trout to prove the excellent fishing he enjoyed.

Other new arrivals include Mary and Jim Mann, who recently sold their business in Redding, Calif.; Ethel and Otis Galloway, from Portland, Ore.; Virgil and Naomi Stevens from Clarksville, Iowa, who are thrilled about the warm sunny weather; Jack and Bea Shinn from Santa Ana, who are former residents of Palm Springs; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Cox who have visited Orchard each year now since 1928; two couples from Canada, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McDonald and Mrs. P. W. Easthope.

from Garden Grove, Vancouver; Mrs. Richard Singer, who is a writer and whose pen name is Anna Balogh; and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Parker.

MR. DRAKE, WHO has been at Orchard all season, took off long enough to dispose of the family home. He is back again now and will be joined by his wife.

Sahara Park

Appropriately today, in this advanced age of moon rockets Sahara has had something new. The Space Sale. Residents enjoyed the novel idea very much and everything from dainty antique cups and saucers to sliding glass doors were sold at this tremendously successful affair.

Al and Kathryn Flynn, bride and groom, were honored guests of a surprise party given for them Tuesday evening at the George Hair's cabana. After dinner, a group of approximately 45 neighbors and friends came in for dessert and to extend their best wishes to the couple. The Flynn's were presented with an electric coffee maker by their friends. Cake and punch were served by the Hairs.

THE LADIES MONDAY afternoon luncheons and card parties are popular at Sahara and well attended. Last Monday Alma Ayres and Dorcas Johnston were the hostesses and this week Maude Gillen and Alma Adair were hostesses for the occasion.

Valentine's Day was happily observed by a Valentine Dance Party. The Club House was gaily decorated with hearts, cupid and red streamers. About 300 enjoyed the round and pattern dancing. Cake and coffee were served by Gladys May and her committee, and in addition, a sheet cake decorated with hearts and flowers was brought by the dancers from Ramon Park.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES R. Tate have been enjoying a visit from Mrs. Hazel Bradt of Lake Geneva, Wis.

Miss R. Zella Deeny and Miss Gertrude Deeny have returned from a trip to Seattle where they attended the wedding of their niece. Their sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Bader of Seattle, accompanied them home and are enjoying the desert. They are planning a trip to Las Vegas for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hubbard of Medford, Ore., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hubbard. They have taken a short trip to San Diego for a few days.

MR. AND MRS. CARL R. Barker of Lewiston, Idaho, are occupying Mrs. Virginia Rose's trailer and cabana for a month.

The C. J. Murrys have taken their vacation trailer and gone on a trip to Phoenix for several months. Mr. and Mrs. Claud C. Clark of Portland, Ore., are staying in the Murray trailer and cabana during their absence.

The Roy Adairs are enjoying a visit from their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Willis of Oakland.

Washington's Birthday will be observed by a Sahara Dinner on Saturday, Feb. 22. The traditional Washington Cream Pie will be listed on the menu being planned by Gladys May and Flossie Tot-ten, who are chairman and co-chairman, aided by the ladies on the February committee.

ANOTHER OUTING enjoyed by a large number of Sahara residents was the Sunday brunch held at El Mirador this week.

An outstanding Fashion Show will be presented at Sahara Park Wednesday, Feb. 26, at 1:45. Custom made dresses will be featured by Fiesta Fashions of Palm Springs. A number of interesting and novel numbers will be presented around the pool. The Yerk's are residents of Sahara Park. Refreshments will be served by the ladies of the park. All trailerites and guests are invited.

Tramview

A surprise birthday party honoring Ernest L. (Dutch) Fritcher was one of the recent celebrations held in Tramview. Fritcher, long time resident and co-captain of Tramview's 1955-56 championship team in the Interpark Shuffleboard League, was taken ill a few weeks ago and just recently returned to Tramview to recuperate.

Intrigue and secrecy brought Fritcher to the shuffleboard area, escorted by Al Camo, co-captain of the '55-56 team. There he was greeted by almost the entire park, among them the members of two of the park's finer teams.

DRESSED IN "DOLLY" attire appropriate for their "women's" teams were Elmer Morrow, Carl Garlick, Jack Dunn and Glen Steever, while on the distaff side were found Edith Shook, Stella Garlick, Minnie Lowery and Beulah Gillespie, all attired as "men." Dutch was then offered two straws to determine which team he should root for, and drew one for the "men's" team. Bill Childs then refereed the match which was called before completion due to inclement (hot) weather.

SPONSORING THE festive affair were the men's and women's shuffleboard teams at Tramview. Following the game more than 100 persons were served coffee and cake, the latter having been furnished by Olivia Clark, Dorothy Funk, Marjorie Danskin, Marie Bare, Edith Shook, Eve Shriner, Goldie Dunn, Arlene Head and Ruth Childs. Stella Garlick baked the birthday cake for Dutch, who said he "had waited 61 years for a birthday party and when it arrived it certainly was a good one."

Mildred Ward, chairman of Tramview's Hobby activities, has returned from the hospital and is recuperating rapidly. She has made plans for the annual Hobby Show and Bazaar scheduled for Tramview for March 10 from 1 until 6. Visitors are welcome to attend this show.

TRAMVIEW RESIDENTS are proud of their interpark shuffleboard team. At the end of the first half of play Tramview was in first position, and since the beginning of the second half has widened its margin of lead.

The park management will again sponsor a shuffleboard series to determine the champion player among the men and the women. The tourney is scheduled to start on March 17, with the women's series to be played first. Two trophies have been scheduled and will be presented to the winners.

Trailer Village

Birthdays in this month of Sweethearts include three ladies here in the park, Vicki James, Grace Collins and Rose O'Shea. Vicki's birthday falls on Valentine's Day and a small party was held in her honor.

Mrs. Edith Roach is entertaining her daughter, Mrs. Colbert, and grandson this past week. Those who have returned to the park recently include Captain and Mrs. Gibson from Laguna Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clements, who went to Los Angeles for a week.

Tramview

Valentine's Day was enjoyed and recognized by two occasions at Sky Ridge last week. The Women's luncheon and Card Party held in the Club House had as its table decorations the very attractive Valentine motif.

Edith Ashenden and Hazel Ritten were the hostesses and after the luncheon, Mrs. Lucille Paulsen of Bahadra Road gave a demonstration in painting on fabric. Mrs. Paulsen is a very well known painter in this area. The demonstration was then followed by cards.

THE SECOND Valentine party was held in the Club House, and music and games were enjoyed by all present. Merle Hancock, manager of Sky Ridge, sang some songs, accompanied on the piano by Lorene Smith. Ron Bucey, an accordionist, and three of his college friends then entertained with songs and accordion music. Light refreshments were served.

The County Fair and Date Festival at Indio will find Mrs. Inez Horsley in charge of the American Cancer Society Booth, assisted by Mrs. Flo Barnes, Nina Filkins, Mary Harrison, Clara Chandler and Estelle Bloeser.

MR. AND MRS. S. E. Rodda enjoyed having their daughter Mrs. E. F. Woehler fly from Los Angeles to spend the day with them Friday. On Saturday she and her husband, Eddie, left Los Angeles to fly to Rome, Italy, where Mr. Woehler will supervise the production of "Ben Hur" for M.G.M. They expect to be gone from 12 to 18 months.

Dr. Alex Leaf, assistant Professor of Medicine at Harvard Medical School in Boston is visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Aron Leaf.

TWO COUPLES, Lee and Mary Dickinson and Herman and Hazel Ritten left Monday for a trip to Mexico. They will be gone approximately three weeks.

Col. and Mrs. W. F. C. Jepson of Oakland have been visiting Maudie Mundell this past week. They returned home Thursday.

WINNERS in the Ladies singles on Friday playing shuffleboard were Hazel Ritten and Mary Dickinson. On Sunday the women were victorious over the men, and Monday the winners in the Men's singles were Dr. Kettler and Bert Conroy.

Nancy Barnhisel, resident of Sky Ridge, is one of their most enthusiastic painters. Nancy began painting at the age of 60 and now exhibits her work at various galleries and museums and is actively selling her work. Mrs. Barnhisel began her artistic career in music. Later she took up writing and published short stories in 30 magazines. Then, tired of writing, she tried painting and enjoys this medium of expression daily.

Brotherhood For Peace and Freedom

By JOHN S. KNIGHT
Chicago Daily News

One need only look over the events of last year, both at home and abroad, to be reminded forcefully of the continuing need to renew our devotion to the American ideal of brotherhood.

It is fitting that we have this opportunity each year to rededicate ourselves to the cause of understanding and fair play among our people—and among nations as well.

America is the home of the greatest experiment in liberty ever developed by man. Here we have demonstrated before the world the ability of men and women of good will to live and work together in peace and harmony, regardless of differences in race, creed or cultural background.

Despite the success of these efforts, there are times when we have failed to measure up. And because of this, it is important that we take inventory from time to time of our position in the struggle for human freedom.

It is to America that the free men and women of the world look for leadership and moral strength. Part of our tradition has been to stand up and be counted whenever and wherever freedom is challenged. And wherever the forces of darkness and oppression threaten the liberties of men. It is America that the world turns for counsel and succor.

When we have failed at home in any area, it is time to renew our faith in the great virtues of charity and tolerance. We must work everlastingly for that unity and cooperation among all our people, that has been a guiding principle of the American democracy.

Only by doing so can we properly assert the moral force that our neighbors expect of us. It is the rededication to this cause that we observe Brotherhood Week.

The Taft Influence

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The late Senator Robert Taft once pointed out that American liberty, and not the fugitive butterfly called International "peace," is the proper concern of United States foreign policy.

Isn't that what so many statesmen are saying now? Secretary Dulles came, three weeks ago, to make a luncheon speech at the National Press Club, the Waterloo of many a would-be Napoleon over world affairs.

BUT MR. DULLES stuck to his knife and fork, keeping his foot firmly out of his mouth, and many newsmen who had come to jeer remained to praise. The gist of the Secretary's remarks on the all-important Summit Conference question was: "Get these behind me, Khrushchev." The Secretary was not seeking "peace," he told us, at the price of surrender.

Senator Bridges a week or so afterwards went to the defense of Mr. Dulles whom Senate Democrats were taunting as "inflexible" and "unimaginative" in the business of peace-mongering with the Kremlin. Senator Bridges, senior Republican of the upper chamber and a bearer of the Taft tradition, pommelled the Democrats and lauded Mr. Dulles "because he insists on safeguards that will protect this nation's survival and because he refuses to be caught in any Russian bear traps."

PRACTICALLY EVERY Republican on the floor congratulated the Bridges' speech, which was to be expected; but the Acting Democratic floor-leader, Senator Mike Mansfield, also got in on the act, saying:

"I wish to commend the distinguished Senator from New Hampshire on his position in relation to meetings held at the Summit. I think he is absolutely right."

Today there is, in almost every place except the White House, a determination to give the old clichés about "peace" some second, sober thinking. Three times in this century we have made war in the name of "peace," and at the Geneva Conference in 1955 there was enough grinning and cocktail-toasting to make life forever beautiful in technicolor. There is this re-evaluation taking place:

WHAT'S A FOREIGN policy for? Is it for the purpose of trying to bestow upon mankind the heavenly blessing called "peace"—the goal and promise of all religions? Or is it primarily to preserve the sovereignty of the USA?

The search for "peace" is primarily one that is undertaken by saints and Messiahs, and it pertains to life after death. But the matter of national sovereignty, with all the freedoms guaranteed in the American Constitution, is something for the living generations—ourselves and our posterity.

THE WHITE HOUSE, not being a place where ideas are so freely exchanged and debated, is still optimistically inclined toward a Summit meeting. Mr. Eisenhower's well-known preoccupation with peacemaking has become a sense of destiny. He would not want his Presidential term—much less his mortal life—to end without exhausting every possibility of getting a net over the elusive gleam called International "peace."

In truth, the President is out of harmony with his party leaders. But this optional tug of war is not necessarily a bad thing. We have had Presidents, like Wilson and the two Roosevelts, who made foreign policy and then demanded that the rest of the nation fall in line with it.

MR. EISENHOWER, although a military man, is not the kind of President that is admirably called "strong," meaning bull-headed. He is going to try for "peace." He could very well bring off some sort of closely supervised world-armistice. But if he does, he will find the Congressional leaders determined as never before to check the final decisions.

The Taft influence cannot be overlooked. Senator Taft's last speech of any consequence was written from a Cincinnati hospital bed and delivered for the Senator by his son to a home-town audience. It was the speech which many newspapers boiled down to three words—"Go it alone."

THE SENATOR DID not use those words, but the idea of giving a priority of purpose to American sovereignty and of withdrawing our misplaced faith in "peace" through collective security was at the heart of it. This same idea is at the heart of Congressional thinking today. And perhaps it can be said, in all respect to both the living and the dead, that if President Eisenhower does go to the Summit, his "prime minister" will be at his elbow to see that things do not go wholly wrong.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: I disagree with you when you said "when that man takes his hair down, tell him to leave it down" — meaning his ill-fitting hair-piece. My husband is bald and I would give anything if he would go get himself a hair-piece. Men would not want to look at their wives with no hair so why should women have to look at men without hair? It doesn't mean a man is vain, either. It is just like putting grass or shrubs in because it is better looking than bare earth. People replace teeth, arms and legs if something happens to them. Why not hair?

FOR HAIR-PIECES DEAR FOR: The woman who said she preferred to see the man's bald head complained because the hair-piece was artificial looking. I am also for hair-pieces, but unless they're natural looking, they're ridiculous.

DEAR ABBY: I belong to a church that forbids divorce. I have been married for two years to a man who told me before we married that he had insurance, owned his own home, clear and free, and had no debts. I was a widow and he was a widower when we married. I now discover that he has no insurance, his home is mortgaged to the hilt, and he is up to his neck in debts (gambling and others). Please advise me?

ROPE-DEAR: Talk to your priest. You were "roped-in" all right by a man who misrepresented himself. This is fraud. An annulment might be in order in your case.

DEAR ABBY: I wrote to you a while ago and told you I was going to have a baby and I thought it wasn't my husband's. You told me to stick to my husband — that I could be wrong. Well, that's just what I did. The baby was a boy and there is no doubt about it. It is my husband's. The baby is the image of him. I just wanted to thank you for our happiness. I won't ever forget you.

SO HAPPY NOW

DEAR ABBY: A while back you told a girl to forget the guy in the service because he didn't write to her. I've been stationed overseas in war and peace-time and many times I'd start writing a letter to the folks back home (or my girl) and I wouldn't be able to finish it. I just couldn't think of anything to say. Don't take my word for it, Abby. Ask the mothers, wives and sweethearts who read your column. I'm sure they'd tell you by the thousands that they didn't get mail from men in Service, only because the men had nothing to say and not because they didn't care about them.

EX-G.I. DEAR EX: And for every serviceman who didn't finish a letter there was a mother or a wife or a sweetheart who lived for the mailman's footsteps. They'd have been thrilled to see a postcard with three little words (I love you) every few days. Does that take so much time and effort? Sorry, Bud—I do not buy your sad story.

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl of 17 who just had a baby six weeks ago. My problem is that my mother is 33 years old and is very mad at me for calling her "Grandma" in public. She is my real mother and she is a grandmother whether she likes it or not. She is married to a fellow who is 29 (not my father) and she doesn't want anyone to know how old she is. She says I should call her RITA and the baby (when he talks) can call her Rita, also. What do you think she should be called?

A PROUD NEW MOTHER DEAR PROUD: Never mind what I THINK she should be called—just keep the peace and call her "Rita."

CONFIDENTIAL TO "ERMO" Did this man put the ring on your FINGER or through your NOSE? You are engaged and should be led only one place — down the aisle.

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

When you give Your donation To the United Fund, Don't be anemic, Make it rotund.

You don't like it. All right, that's two of us.

BLAME BETH SCOTT for this. She's heading one facet of the campaign to put over the United Fund Drive here and she called me yesterday.

Wanted a little rhyme to set off their Porchlight Parade, based on the March of Dimes plan in which people leave their porch lights on to guide workers to their doors in a concerted collection drive.

The UFD is going to stage one and Beth wanted a bit of verse. Was flattered that she asked me.

BUT YOU KNOW how it is. After you've given forth with something, you can always think of something better.

For instance, after she had dubiously thanked me for my contribution and hung up, I thought of:

Sakes Alive! Help that drive.

Or:

Give once for all, Don't make it small.

Anyway, that's the way it goes. You always think of the bright comebacks after it's too late.

THE OWNER of a local establishment got to thinking about the accumulated time lost in the numerous coffee breaks. Put it down on paper and it came out that he was losing 12 hours a day in productive endeavor from his large staff.

So he bought an electric coffee machine and installed it in his establishment.

Put up a tin can with the sign: "We trust you. You are honest. Please deposit five cents for every cup of coffee."

About the only place in town where you could get a nickel cup of coffee.

BUT SEEMS the honor system didn't work too well. Too many pennies, which made a noise like a nickel when they chunked in the can, were showing up.

At first, he was philosophical. "Anyway, I may be losing in coffee but I'm saving in man, (and women) hours."

But finally, even that got beyond control.

SO YESTERDAY, a new sign appeared by the coffee urn.

"Please do not complain if the coffee is too weak. Because income does not meet outgo, we have had to put less coffee in the pot."

"Please be generous today so that we may be generous tomorrow."

"We would consider it shameful if we had to use today's grounds again tomorrow."

"Thank you."

THIS IS THE DAY we observe the birthday of George Washington, so I cannot tell a lie. I liked this quip swiped from Uncle Levi Zink in the Farm Journal.

"See no evil, speak no evil, hear no evil and half of the women's clubs in the country would fold up."

And a lot of men's clubs, too.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

Coffee this morning at the lovely Mexico City Airport. The airport peacocks were out in the thin sun — they spread their tails when a plane goes over. And at 2 o'clock that afternoon I was in Wil Wright's old-fashioned ice cream parlor, Sunset boulevard, Los Angeles.

"The coffee ice cream. With the bitter-sweet chocolate and the almonds and whipped cream! Por favor," I said. "Likewise, muchas gracias."

"Crazy, man," the waitress agreed. Home again!

AH, HOME, SWEET home! Take back your enchiladas and the garlicky sopa de ajo.

Give me the green De-Cicco salad at House of Murphy on La Cienega and the roast beef riding rare in the juice!

LET ME WRESTLE Patsy d'Amore for the spaghetti at Villa Capri. While Mickey Cohen belts the nearby waiter. And all the movie folk crowd the nearby columnist, they should be sure their names get into the item!

I made a beachhead landing on a 2-pound top sirloin at the Fog Cutter's.

"Wrap up the rest for my dog," I told the waiter.

It was the tastiest left-over I ever ate in a hotel bed.

Home, sweet home! Wonderful town! Wonderful country!

ADIOS, MEXICO. We are back in the land of working plumbing. No longer do we lift the lid and replace the broken bulb stopper. The water runs hot, night and day, in the tub. It is a pleasure to watch it.

In the elegant morning, we saunter on the elegant boulevard and eat in the quaint native manner. Waffles — a sort of native tortilla with little regular depressions to hold the melted butter and the syrup.

We drink the water directly from the tap. The management assures me it is purified.

WHEN I LEFT this morning from Mexico City, Marcial Muro called me at the hotel. He said he could not see me off. He was sick.

"Ever since I came back from Los Angeles last week," he said.

"Serious," I asked.

"Only turista sickness," he said. "We Mexicans ALWAYS get sick when we go to the States."

HASTA LA VISTA Avenida Juarez. Back to the land of comic books, pocket books and a working TV in every room.

Back to built-in hi-fi, build-up press agents. The 27-inch screen and the 40-inch bosom. Where every boy can grow up to be President. And every girl can grow up to be Jayne Mansfield — if she grows up enough.

Where the tail fins are taller. And the hair is cut shorter.

Land of milk and honey and going, going, gone money.

Caramba!

SO LONG, YOU wonderful great square of Mexico. Nos vemos! We'll be seeing you otra vez. Five-and-a-half short hours south over the rugged Sierra Madre. We'll miss the blue Mexican sky and the green spikes of maguay on your highland plateau.

Today we are back in the country of Trendex ratings — and the Trendex rates it high this day.

THE TAXIMETROS work on the taxicabs. And the restaurants are rich with leather and polished wood. The shop windows are stuffed with the good things to eat and the good things to wear.

But last night, over the steak, the piano hit the first crashing chords of Agustín Lara's "Graciosa." And we remembered the marimba bands in the golden plazas. Oh, yes, we remembered.

EARL WILSON:

Busy Busy!

NEW YORK—"This is like 1946 . . . backstage at the Roxy," Peter Lind Hayes, the quintuple-threat man, said.

"I don't remember that," I confessed.

"You don't!" Peter was sitting at a table with his overcoat on at the House of Chan. "We were playing the Roxy and doubling into the Copa when you came to interview us. Desi Arnaz was the bandleader at the Copa then . . ."

We both laughed hollowly, and wagged our heads, at how rich Desi's got in 12 years and how rich we haven't got.

But Peter Hayes and Mary Healy have done pretty good at that—they're in TV, radio, night clubs and records—and now I was talking to them about their fifth threat . . . crashing the Broadway stage in Norman Krasna's comedy, "Who Was That Lady I Saw You With?"

Except that Mary couldn't make it.

"I'm afraid I have to go for a fitting. And on my dinner hour!" she said.

Peter had to go for a fitting, too, at his tailor's. And he was still sitting in his overcoat, having a scotch-break, to save time. Beside him sat the great actor, Ray Walston, the devil in "Damn Yankees," a confederate in the new show.

"This is a hell of a gamble for us," Peter remarked.

"We cancelled—or postponed—five weeks in Las Vegas."

"Guess we're just stage-struck," he admitted. "All this jazz started a couple of years ago. Krasna said he wanted us for a show. I thought it was just conversation."

"We'd read 22 scripts we turned down. When this one arrived, I fell out of bed laughing at it."

Pete said he's hanging out with Walston now and budding up to him with an ulterior motive.

"I'm protecting myself," he explained. "This guy was the devil in 'Damn Yankees' and I claim him as my own."

"Healy's going to get the notices," maintained Walston, also still in his overcoat.

"She has the part," Pete said. "I'm just a straight man."

Pete could so easily break up the show with a twist of the face—which he'd better not do!" Walston warned.

Pete and Mary do a daily radio show, which complicates a stage career somewhat, and in addition are always on call as Arthur Godfrey's replacements on TV.

"I've got what they call a tentative clearance," Pete says. "That means if Godfrey gets sick, I still have to come in from Philadelphia or wherever I am, and do the show."

Godfrey'll be taking a leave soon after they open in New York—and though that'll mean a lot of work, it'll be a handy way, too, to give a few plugs to their show . . . and what could be fairer than plugging your own show?"

"And if this isn't a funny show," said Pete, "I'm ready to pack it in."

THE WEEK-END WINDUP . . .

"DON'T PRINT THAT!" A world-famed actress wasn't allowed to take part in a small benefit show in her home town because the director didn't think she was right for the role . . . A top-ranking — and fiery — singer stopped her cafe act to sing to the conductor: "Either do it my way or get off the stage!"

Abbe Lane, who plays a stripper in "Oh Captain!" says: "I spend more time dressing to go to the theater than I do to go on stage" . . . United Artists is trying to popularize a dance called "The Swivel" . . . Rodgers and Hammerstein want Tsuruko Kobayashi Feinberg, for their "Flower Drum Song."

Gretchen Wyler confesses she's lost over 30 pounds since "Silk Stockings," though she said she weighed 135 then, she actually weighed 156 . . . Singer Lyda Fairbanks is hospitalized—instead of a hit disk she has a slipped disk . . . Bob Hope wants Fred McMurray for his "Roberta" revival in St. Louis; both were in him so he won't run away with the show.

"Healy's going to get the notices," maintained Walston, also still in his overcoat.

"She has the part," Pete said. "I'm just a straight man."

Clooney, Sinatra to Stay

Hollywood—Looked for a while there as though Rosemary Clooney and Frank Sinatra, caught with their Trendexes and Nielsen's down, were about to be bounced off the telebeam. But that was last week. THIS week their sponsors allow as how they'll hang onto Rosie and Frankie for another spell and see what happens.

Betty Furness, who has made a career out of opening refrigerator doors, went into her own kitchen and discovered her own refrigerator was on the blink, called a service man, told him her troubles, and then said: "Now get ready for the punch-line—this is Betty Furness talking!" The service man, thinking it was a gag, hung up and I still don't know whether Betty got her refrigerator fixed or not.

FERNANDO LAMAS, who'll star in Bravado, a new teleseries about a retired matador to be produced by Jane Wyman's Lewman Productions, sweet-talked Jane into letting him have 50 percent ownership of the series. Plus which Fernando gets to direct five or six of the segments.

Mocambo Muttering: "It's my own fault—if I'd saved my money during the depression I could afford to live through this prosperity!"

NBC-TV and producer Sol Lesser can't come to terms on the amount of money to be spent shooting Lesser's Tarzan series (Lesser has to pay author Edgar Rice Burroughs estate $125,000 every time he starts a new series) but I'm giving 10-to-one odds nobody will ever be able to keep ol' Tarzan from swinging through TV's trees.

LITTLE MAN, upcoming teleseries dealing with the adventures of a miniature man and co-starring Marshall Thompson and Arthur Franz, will have to have giant-sets for all scenes involving the actors—with tiny puppets taking over the balance of the action.

Bob Montgomery, President Eisenhower's TV-and-radio adviser, has already turned down $200,000 worth of bids from magazines asking him to tell the inside behind-the-mike-and-camera low-down on the President's broadcasts and telecasts.

JACK WEBB WANTS Paul Newman or Ben Gazzara as star of his Pete Kelly's Blues teleseries. Which is nice wanting but not so easy getting.

TV Academy members are squabbling among themselves over the Academy's recent ruling that "Annie Get Your Gun" spec was not produced specifically for TV and is therefore not eligible for an Emmy Award. The boys are skating on thin ice here because if "Annie" isn't eligible neither are "Twentieth Century" and the other historical documentaries which were originally filmed for theatre newsreel showings.

JANE RUSSELL'S currttrazy contract with Howard Hughes currently calls for $1,000 a week for 52 weeks a year for the next 20 years, in spite of the fact that Hughes does NOT have exclusive call on ALL of Jane's working hours. The luscious Miss R. still has the right to make a teleseries (she'll shoot the pilot before May), to star in films for other companies than Hughes's company, and to work all the nightclub dates she wants.

Frankie Laine's new deal with the Dunes in Las Vegas: $25,000 per week for 16 weeks payable over an 18-month period, the pact to run from April 3, 1958, to Dec. 28, 1959 . . . Robert Q. Lewis's crazy new invention: cork dice — for floating crap games!

JOHNNY MATHIS tells me that Eddie Fisher, who dropped backstage at Hollywood's Crescendo to congratulate the teen-agers' new delight on his rip-roarin' performance, suggested this title for Johnny's next record album: "Mathis Magic."

Los Angeles Municipal Judge Evell Younger, who presides over Hollywood's KABC-TV Traffic Court teleseries, turned in his resignation to the studio, effective March 7. All this as a result of an opinion handed down by a committee of the California Judges Conference that Judge Younger's TV appearances violate one of the Conference's canons of judicial ethics. Ironically, Judge Younger, concerned from the beginning as to whether it was proper for him to sit on the TV bench, had asked for the opinion himself.

IT OCCURS TO ME that if Merry Anders, Lori Nelson or Barbara Eden, co-stars in the new How to Marry a Millionaire teleseries, ever DO marry millionaires in the script, the series will be KAPUT . . . They call her honest O'Hara: Maureen O'Hara confided to me that she likes the way the scripts read for CBS-TV's new Guestward Ho! teleseries but doesn't think she'll accept the proffered lead because she feels she isn't right for the role.

Bill Holden had to push aside all his plans for telepicture production, he's so busy acting in movies for theatres. But when and if the movie commitments ease up, Bill will be right back in there pitching on TV.
